Rep. Ramthun Announces 59th Assembly District First Responder of the Year

MADISON- State Representative Timothy Ramthun (R-Campbellsport) has announced Allenton Volunteer Fire Department EMT and firefighter Bernie Wolf as the 59th Assembly District 2019 First Responder of the Year.

“I am proud to recognize Bernie Wolf as the 59th Assembly District 2019 First Responder of the Year. With the length of service and dedication to his community Bernie has, he deserved to be honored with this award,” Rep. Ramthun stated. “For someone who has served his community for over 40 years, as both a firefighter and EMT, it is definitely well-deserved.”

Bernie joined the Allenton Volunteer Fire Department at age 17 in 1975 as a firefighter. After six years, he decided to expand his capacity to serve his community by becoming an EMT as well in 1981. “To have someone like Bernie in the 59th district, who has such a passion and drive to help others, is truly something remarkable. More people like Bernie would make every community better,” Rep. Ramthun added.

Bernie will be recognized at the Hometown Hero award ceremony during the October 10th Assembly Floor Session in the Wisconsin State Capitol.
